

Challenges of Loving Someone who Hoards

- Do you have a family member who collects and doesn't seem to discard?
- Are you wondering how to help someone whose home seems too cluttered?

Wednesday, June 24, 2015 from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Join us in the Bigelow Auditorium at the Marlborough Public Library for the ClearPath panel discussion "Challenges of Loving Someone Who Hoards."

ClearPath panel members will offer thoughts on resources for you and for your loved one and advice on how not to approach someone who hoards.

ClearPath is a program of the Marlborough Community Development Corporation; to learn about the MCDC's good work in the community, visit strongcommunity.org
